Internship Opportunity: Research Intern on Migration Policy and the European Pact on Migration

Location: Remote / Davincilaan 1, 1930 Zaventem, BELGIUM

Duration: [3-6 months]

Commitment: Part-time (20 hours/week) or Full-time (40 hours/week)

Are you an MA or post-graduate student passionate about international or European affairs? Do you want hands-on experience in research, policy analysis, and migration studies? Join our team as a Research Intern focusing on the European Pact on Migration and contribute to impactful research that addresses one of Europe's most pressing challenges!

About the Role:

As a Research Intern, you will delve into the European Pact on Migration, analyzing policies and their implications for migration management, asylum processes, border security, and integration strategies within the EU. This internship offers you a unique opportunity to gain deep insights into European migration policy, support research initiatives, and collaborate with experts in the field.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct Policy Research: Investigate and analyze migration trends, asylum policies, and the implementation of the European Pact on Migration.
- Data Collection and Analysis: Gather and analyze data on migration flows, demographics, and labor market trends across Europe.
- Policy Briefs and Reports: Prepare summaries, policy briefs, and reports that synthesize findings and offer policy recommendations.
- Stakeholder Engagement: Support engagement efforts with EU institutions, member states, NGOs, and other key stakeholders.
- Outreach and Public Awareness: Contribute to newsletters, blog posts, and social media to share research insights and promote public awareness on migration issues.
 - Event Support: Assist in organizing webinars, workshops, and conferences, providing logistical support and helping prepare event materials.

Qualifications:

- Current MA student in International Relations, European Studies, Political Science, Migration Studies, or a related field.
- Strong interest in EU policy, migration, and asylum issues.
- Excellent research, analytical, and writing skills.

- Proficiency in English; knowledge of additional European languages is an asset.
- Familiarity with data analysis and visualization tools is a plus.

What We Offer:

- Hands-on Experience: Gain valuable experience working on a major EU policy initiative and develop practical skills in policy analysis, research, and project management.
- Mentorship: Work closely with migration experts and receive guidance on research methodologies, policy analysis, and professional development.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with professionals in the fields of migration and EU policy through webinars, events, and team activities.
- Flexible Schedule: We understand academic commitments and offer flexibility to help you balance studies and internship responsibilities.

Application and deadline:

Please send your CV, a brief cover letter explaining your interest in migration policy and the European Pact on Migration, and a writing sample to info@behorizon.org. Please note, this is a rolling call. So, there is no deadline. Apply whenever you feel ready.

Join us in contributing to meaningful research on the future of migration in Europe!
